Join us for a Will and estate planning seminar:

Protecting what matters most

At this event, we'll discuss progressive, tax-efficient strategies for structuring your estate and protecting your family. We'll answer questions such as:

- To what extent can a Will protect my family and my life's work?
- What are the responsibilities of an executor or trustee?
- Do I still need a Will if my assets are held jointly with my spouse?
- What happens if I die without a Will?
- How are executors paid for administering my estate?
- How can I choose the right guardians for my children?
- What taxes will be due upon my death?
